

Thanksgiving

Thank you for the bones in my body that wither for relocating my people to unknown not owned lands unfamiliar for letting us think we were special for telling us we were God's chosen people thank you for the lifeless bodies that swim within who will know nothing of the life beyond the lagoon
the cancer
the rising waters
Castle Bravo
Seminole
Romeo
Baker
Mike
Able
King
George
and for that
I say
thank you
